

114. Subscribe for her James Anderson N. B., Ad. Crickmon N. B., Thomas Webster with-neps, George Mawer Witness, Ebenezer Anderson Witness, William Puttullo Witness.
 Messrs John Spences Elder and Younger Joint Commissaries of Brechin &c. Confirmed At Brechin the Twentieth third day of November, One thousand seven hundred and seventy two years. James Anderson writer in Dundee Cautioneer.

The Testament Dative ad hunc effectum and Inventory of the Goods and Gear pertaining and belonging to Unqle George Fullerton late Merchant in Dundee, the time of his decease which was in the Month of January and seventy years, Faithfully made and given up by Francis Henderson Merchant in Dundee Executor Dative qua Creditor decerned to the said defunct by Decree of the Commissaries of Brechin upon the nineteenth day of July January and seventy, In payment and satisfaction to him pro tanto, of the sum of Eleven pounds four shillings and nine pence Sterling as the Ballance of Thirteen pounds four shillings and nine pence Sterling contained in a Bill drawn by him on and accepted by the said Defunct, dated the twenty seventh day of April January and forty nine, and payable upon the first day of August then next, and Arrents thereof since due. And the Inventory is as follows. Imprimus the said Executor Dative qua Creditor gives up Four pounds nine shillings and one penny Sterling being the Balance of the Poup of the defuncts household furniture due by and in the hands of William Chalmers Depute Town Clerk of Dundee. Summa of the Inventory is Four pounds nine shillings and one penny Sterling Messrs John Spence Elder and Younger joint Commissaries of Brechin &c. Confirmed At Brechin the Seventh day of December One thousand seven hundred and seventy two.
 George Webster Merchant in Dundee Cautioneer.